The Senior Class dedicates
EXODUS 1970
to Father Damian Szodenyi
for his unselfish time and labor in establishing
The Cistercian Preparatory School.

"I carried you out on eagle's wings and brought you in myself" (Ex. 19:4). Thus speaks the Lord about the great biblical Exodus through which the chosen people broke out of the bonds of slavery to find a free land of their own, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Exodus does not simply mean exiting, going out from one place to another. It means living because of a call, because of a task, because of a promise, under the unfailing protection of a loving and leading God.

This biblical concept of Exodus applies to the whole of human life, but especially to the process of Christian education. The Exodus our school aims to achieve for each of its students is an exodus from the slavery of the impulses and the instincts of immature childhood toward the freedom and responsibility of mature adult life and from the bonds of the selfishness of sin toward the freedom of the childhood of God.

When describing the first great Exodus, the Bible compares it to the first flight of a young bird. God fulfills the role of the young:

He protects him, rears him, guards him,
as the pupil of his eye.
He spreads out his wings to hold him.
He supports him on his pinions (Deut. 32:10-11).

Yet as the time for Exodus arrives, he makes him ready to fly on his own wings.

Fly out, Hawks. Fly! Be it tempest, be it storm, be it the loneliness of the peaks or the coldness of the nights — you will endure the hardships of your Exodus and the dangers of your crossing the wilderness. May the unfailing protection of the One who created, called, reared, and prepared you assure a safe journey — a successful Exodus to the land of His promises. Fly high on your own wings! . . .

The History of the School

The Cistercian Preparatory School was established in 1962 with the aim of preparing students for the finest colleges in the country. It was founded by the Cistercian Fathers of Our Lady of Dallas at the request of parents interested in establishing an excellent secondary school.

The Cistercian Order, founded in the year 1090 in France, is a Medieval branch of Western Monasticism following the rule of St. Benedict. The Order was engaged in educational and cultural apostolates since the middle ages with a leading role in the intellectual life of Medieval Europe.

The school was opened in September, 1962, on the campus of the Ursuline Academy with grades 4 and 5. It remained there for two and a half years while the present Middle School was under construction on the campus of the University of Dallas. In January of 1965, classes were moved to the new building. The Upper School was finished in 1966 and enrollment has been fulfilled this year.

A School Board was established to set policies and to supervise the operation of the school. This generosity and guidance has been an invaluable aid in the operation of the school.

Hawks Take Season Opener

The Hawks fell behind in the first quarter on a 40 yard F.G. by T.V., and were hindered in making a comeback by over 200 yards in penalties. In the second half, however, Tim Sullivan hit Monte Atkinson with a long TD pass to make the score 6-3. Joe Bush added a safety late in the game to make the score 8-3 and wrap up the scoring.

Cardinals Hand Hawks 1st Defeat

Down 18-8 at halftime, the Hawks took a 20-18 lead into the final period on TD passes from Sullivan to Atkinson and Chas. Williams. But Fort Worth Christian came to life in the final twelve minutes to eke out a 24-20 win. Joe Bush broke his ankle in the second quarter.

Hawks Fall in Defensive Battle

It looked like a long night for the Hawks as Greenhill downed Sims Slaton for an early safety. But Monte Atkinson remedied the situation with a 90 yard interception return as the half ended. The second half was all Greenhill, however, as the Hornets struck for two quick touchdowns to walk off with a 16-6 victory.

Hawks Fall?

Sophomore Steve Williams called signals against F.W. Country Day. This came as a result of a crippling injury to starter Sullivan in the previous contest. Williams launched TD passes to brother Chas. and Atkinson in the final two minutes, but it proved too little, too late as an apparently successful conversion by Sims Slaton was seen differently in the eyes of the official. The result: a heartbreaking 14-12 setback.

Bad Night in Tyler

The first big road trip for the Hawks was actually more successful than the score indicated. Tyler Catholic routed CPS, 52-8, but when the smoke had cleared, Coach Coombes said he felt that from a hitting standpoint it had been the best game of the year. Interceptions, penalties and long gainers spelled the Hawks' doom. Atkinson prevented the game from being a shutout with a 55 yard punt return for a touchdown.

Chargers Too Classy

After a scoreless first period, the Hawks fell victim to D. Christian's powerful ground game, and were downed, 40-16. S. Williams racked up over 250 yards passing, including touchdown bombs to brother Chas. and halfback Jim Pritchett.

Hawks in Romp!

On Oct. 2, the Jesuit B. team dropped the Hawks 40-12, in a Thursday afternoon tuneup for the Greenhill game. Coach Coombes elected to play the second team defense in the game, in order to give them some seasoning. The game did not count on the Hawks record.

Jesuit, 40-12

Sat. Nov. 8, 1969, was the night that the Hawks finally put everything together. Burned up over the previous week's debacle at Tyler, the Hawks ran up a 25-0 lead before Sacred Heart had their chin straps buttoned. S. Williams hit Sims Slaton and Atkinson with T.D. passes, and scored himself on a roll out. Slaton scored the last T.D. on an end sweep. Sacred Heart recovered to make the final score 25-12, on two short runs. S. Williams was injured in the 4th period, suffering a slight concussion, but reserve Q.B. Terry Buell came in to salt down the win.

Everyone has heard all the stories about how football is not just fun and games, but there are about 35 CPS players who will tell you that hearing the stories is nothing like trying it for yourself.

It all started last April when Spring Training began under the direction of Coach Ron Taliaferro. This is regarded as one of the worst parts of the season because it consists of two to three weeks of pure practice with no games in between. The sessions ended in early May with a 7-6 scrimmage win over Greenhill.

Two-a-days began on August 18, consisting of practices each day at 8:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. During this part of the season, anyone who can find time to do anything except eat, sleep, and practice has found a way to fit 30 hours into one day.

All this sweat is worth it, though, when you hit the field for the first game, especially when it ends in a victory, as did the Hawks' opener with Trinity Valley.

"B" Team Football

Hawk Defense Stymies Lions

The CPS B team got off to a good start by nipping St. Mark's freshmen, 2-0, in a real defensive battle. Joe Bush scored on a first half safety, as neither offense could score. St. Mark's was unable to move the ball at all, while the Hawks were hurt by big plays and by their own mistakes. The contest was not a classic, but any game that ends in a victory has got to be classified as a good one.

HAWKS 2 ST. MARK'S 0

Lions Rebound With 40-22 Victory

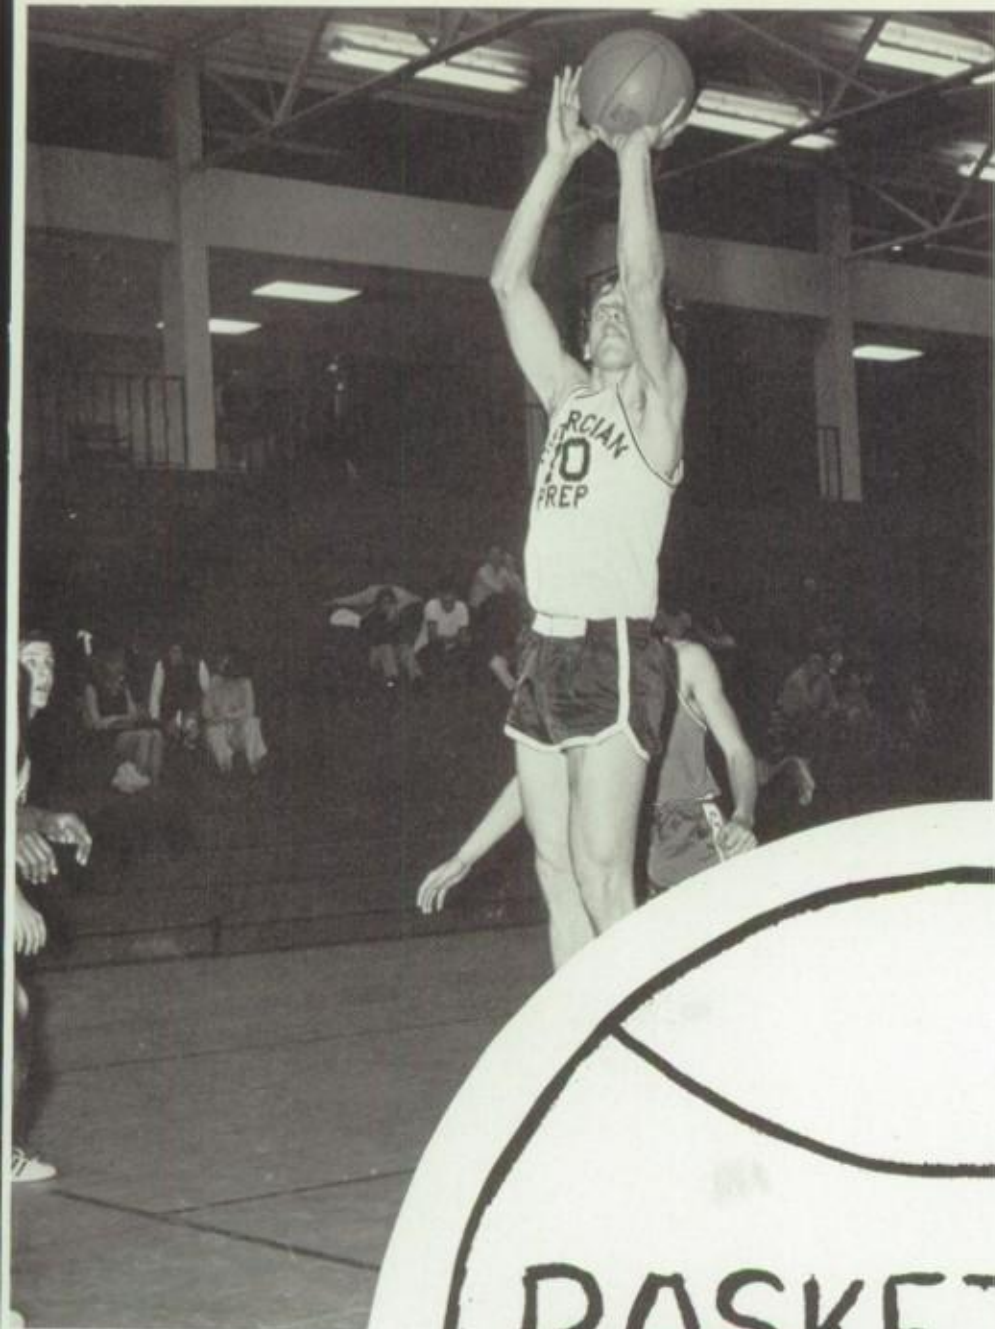

The Hawk's rematch with St. Mark's was a complete reversal of the previous contest, not only because of the fact that St. Mark's won this time, but also because 62 total points were scored in this game, as opposed to 2 in the other. As might have been expected, B team coach Cooper was pleased at the improvement in his offense, but disappointed in the defense.

HAWKS 22 ST. MARK'S 40

Friars Blast Hawks in Mud

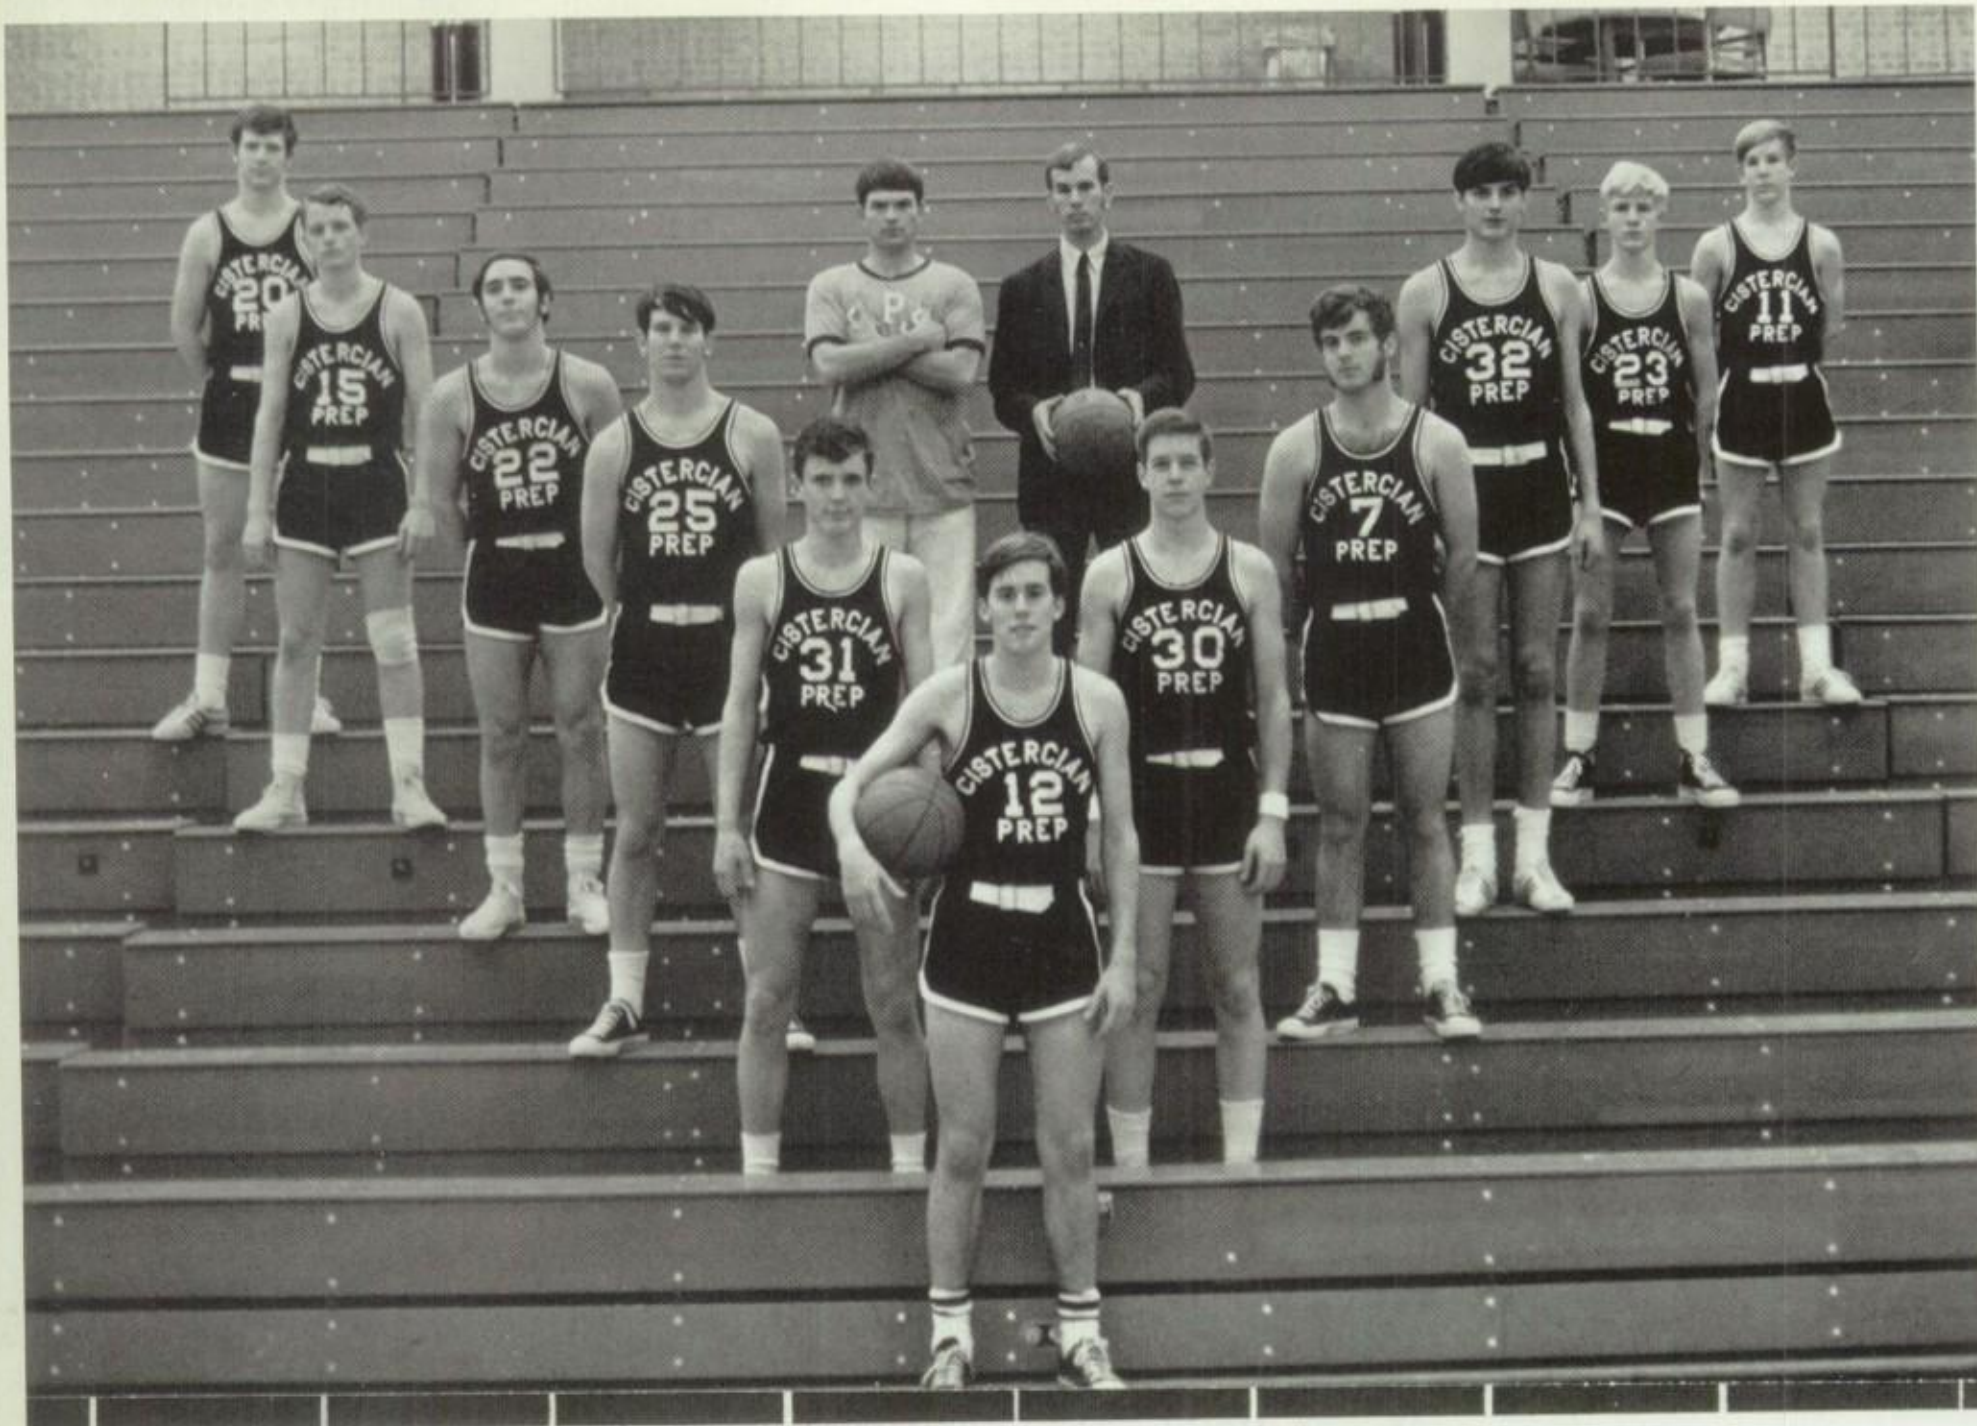

Bishop Lynch's freshman team, one of the strongest in the city, was too much for an undermanned Hawks' B team, and walked off with a 40-0 victory on the very muddy turf of the Friar's Roffino Stadium. Only 15 players were available for the game and the lack of depth was a factor in keeping the Hawks from making the score respectable, although the Friars got only 8 points, after the half.

The 1969-70 Varsity basketball season was a combination of disappointments and high points for the Hawks. When the last buzzer had sounded, the Hawks had finished the season with a somewhat disappointing record of 7 wins and 12 losses, and a 6-6 record and fourth place in the TISC.

Things looked bleak during the first part of the season, as the Hawks could only manage one win in seven games against tough non-conference competition. The team had only two weeks of practice before its first game, and lack of smoothness in execution along with frequent errors was evident in the early going. The Hawks played in the Cedar Hill Tournament during December and posted their only non-conference win of the season, 65-59 over Blooming Grove in the opening game.

The conference opener for the Hawks was on Jan. 13 at Greenhill. The game ended in a 57-53 heartbreak for the Hawks, but even though the game was a loss, it was a promising sign, because Greenhill had been highly regarded in pre-season evaluations. Nevertheless, the Hawks were downed by Dallas Christian and Country Day before gaining their first conference victory on Feb. 3, a 70-59 win over Trinity Valley in Fort Worth.

It was at this point that the Hawks should have started the season. Counting the Trinity Valley game, the Hawks won five of eight games before dropping the conference finale to Fort Worth Christian.

The season was climaxed, however, on March 5 when the Hawks soundly trounced the CPS faculty, 79-60.

Season in Review

Under the capable direction of Coach Pat McCormack, the Hawk soccer team enjoyed its most active season in school history, playing a total of twenty games, compiling a season record of 6 wins, 13 losses, and 1 tie. The team actually played two seasons, competing in the North Dallas Chamber of Commerce Tournament from September until early November, and playing from November on in the North Texas High School Soccer League, of which Coach McCormack was president.

Refusing to fold after suffering losses in the first two games of tournament play, the team regrouped behind the strong offensive play of Mike Kurilecz and Mike Haggerty, and the work of goalkeepers Peter Kurilecz and Mike McGehee to finish with a record of 5 wins, 5 losses and one tie. This rally was good enough to give the Hawks a tie for second in the final tournament standings.

Competition proved tougher in the North Texas High School League, however. The Hawks finished fifth in the six team circuit (composed of St. Mark's, Selwyn of Denton, Jesuit, Trinity Valley, Fort Worth Country Day, and Cistercian), with one win and eight setbacks. The team was hampered by a number of problems, including injuries, bad weather, and a less than spectacular turnout of players for some of the games.

It seems that greater interest from the student body is the only ingredient lacking in the Hawks' drive for soccer domination in years to come.

Activities

International Club (I.C.S.)

... the guardian angel ...

Last summer, the I.C.S. including John Thomas, John Bush, Jim Pritchett, Lymon Hall, Mike Healy, Bill Wood, Ray Foley, Tim Johnson, and the fearless leader Fr. Melchoir, made a grand tour throughout Europe taking in all the cultural, historical and other beauties of this fabulous continent. Refusing to be overcome by the many obstacles which they encountered along the way, the intrepid crew managed to get through France, Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Germany (barely) and even the Netherlands. Despite running out of money a week early (a minor oversight), they all managed to stumble onto the plane headed for home — a wiser, but considerably poorer, group.

Never again will we drink wine and beer on the same night.

Ray Foley gives his opinion of the tower.

Summer School

This past summer, Monte Atkinson, Tim Johnson, John Bush, Tom Martin, along with Fr. Roch, started a summer school for underprivileged children of West Dallas. Thirty-four kids were involved in the program along with twelve student teachers, seven from Cistercian and five from miscellaneous schools. The program lasted for six weeks, meeting five times a week with two hours of study and two of recreation each day. The program proved a success for both the students and the teachers.

Happiness is helping someone; Beauty is doing it with love.

Ski Camp

Under the organization of Fr. Melchoir, this past January the sixth annual ski camp came to life. Previously the camp was held in different parts of New Mexico and Colorado. It seems the camp now has a permanent home at Crested Butte, since it has been there for the last three years.

The area is ideal for everyone from the scarcity of people to the refreshment stands.

However, injuries plagued the ski camp. Mary Lynn Tatarko, Sims Slaton and Gary Gibbons returned with broken legs.

CAST:

On November 21 and 22, the first lower school play, Rip Van Winkle, under the direction of Miss Mary Lynn Tatarko, was aired. The upper school has had two seasons previous to this one, but never before has the lower school taken on this project. Total effort was given by everyone involved with the end result being a fantastic performance.

Upper School Play

Everyone (except for John Thomas) is caught in a typical practice.

This year the upper school under the direction of Becky Hollern shall put on three melodramas. Their names are: "Way, Way down east," "Where is my Wandering Boy Tonight," and "Strong and Silent," cast as either men or women are Jack Brennan, John Bush, Lymon Hall, Tim Johnson, John Thomas, and Charlie Williams of the eighth form, along with Chuck Dolan of the seventh form.

Student-Faculty Game

On Thursday, Feb. 27, the fifth annual Hawk Varsity-Faculty game was held at U.D. gym. And for the first time the Varsity won, 79-60.

The score seems lopsided, but it was a tight game. The faculty, led by Ron Cooper and Athletic Director, Bill Coombes, kept the game close until the second half. Then, despite the Faculty playing with fifteen men (including Miss Del Rio, and Mrs. Ferguson), the varsity turned on the heat and won easily.

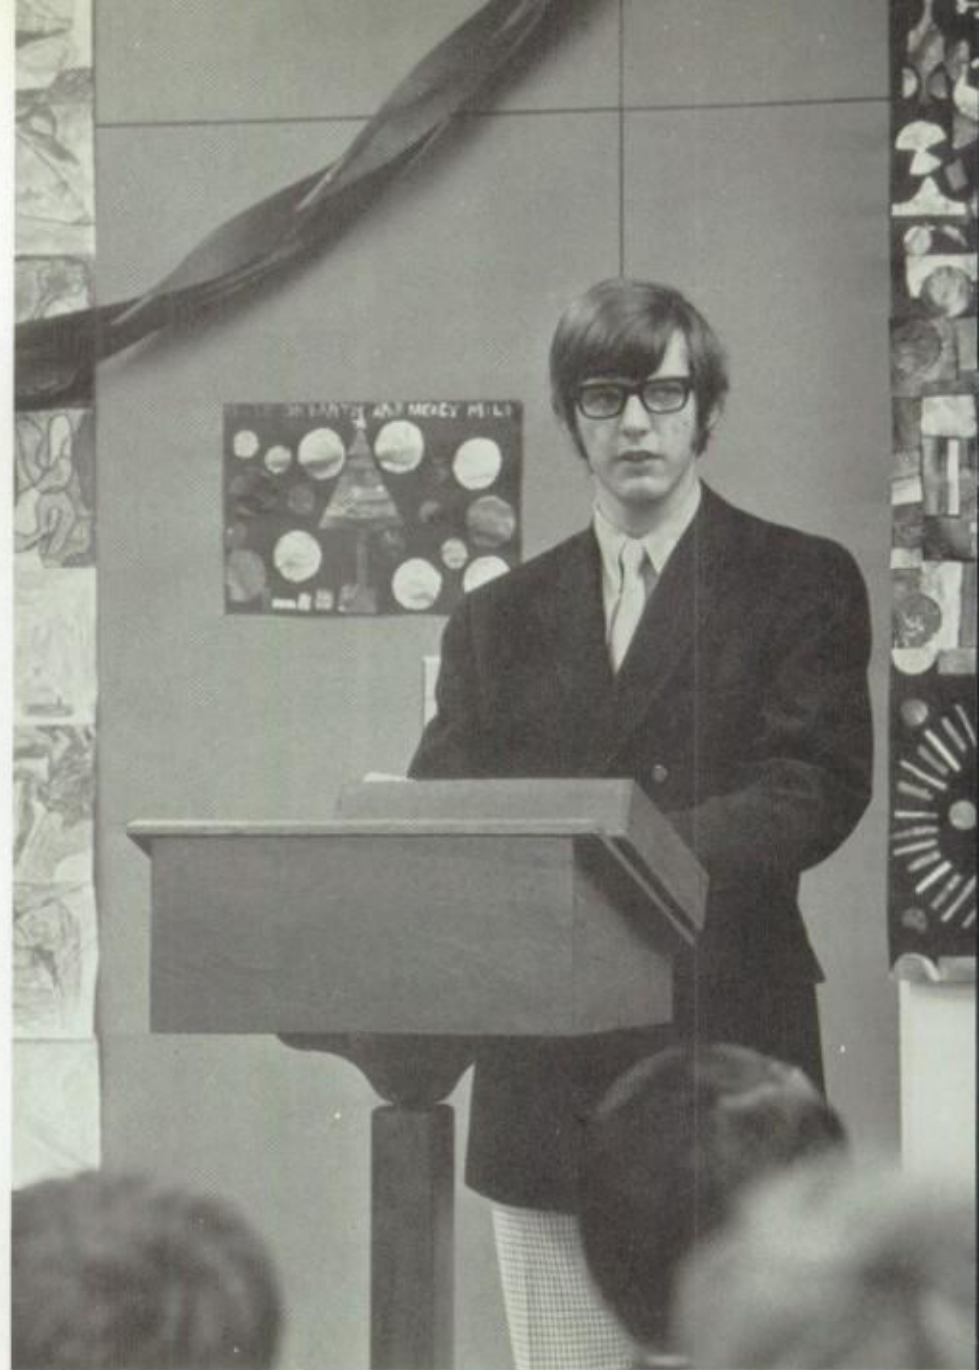

A good crowd was on hand, and for the first time the public address system was in use.

Mrs. Ferguson steals the ball and puts it up.

Senior Rings

This year the junior class has celebrated the second annual ring ceremony. On page 28 there is a picture of the senior ring that was adopted last year by the 1970 seniors. This adoption has gone on to be another tradition of the school. On the right, Brian Melton relates his feelings toward the ring as spokesman for Seniors '71.

Part of the staff shows you how meetings really aren't.

Special thanks is given and deserved to Photographers Lymon Hall and Tom Montgomery. Also to Peter Verhalen, Buck Smith, Chuck Dolan, Charlie Williams, Jack Brennan, Brian Melton, Khalil Ayoub, Mr. Sheppard, Tom Martin and Tim Sullivan.

Religious Activities

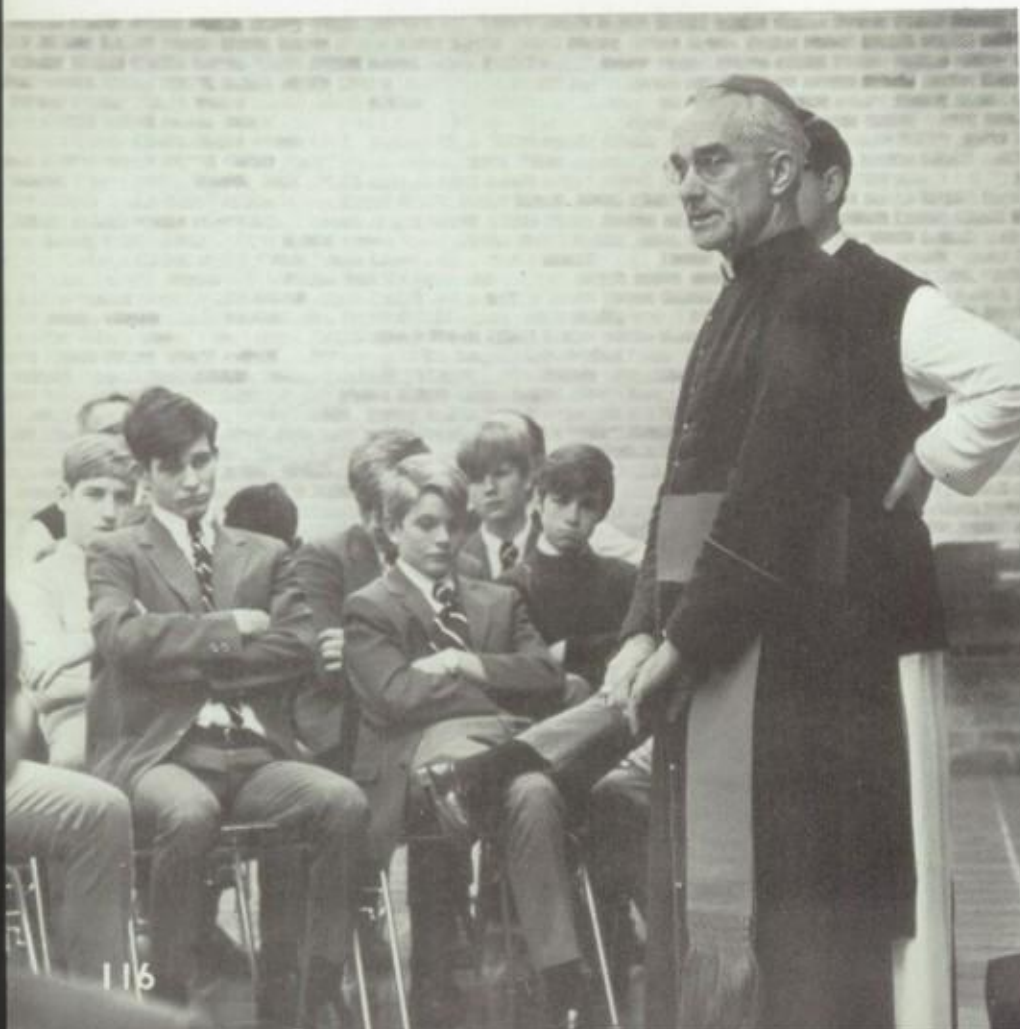

This year the religious program under the supervision of Fr. Roch has entertained various speakers. These speakers vary from a married couple to the Bishop to Dr. Galvin. The culmination of these ideas came in a day of recollection as Ash Wednesday.

Another highlight brought forth by Fr. Roch was the formation of the schola which consists of Charlie Williams, Jack Brennan, John Bush, Monte Atkinson, and Tom Martin. However, there is another schola to be recognized which has no affiliation with Fr. Roch, it consists of Jim Pritchett, Bill Wood and Tim Sullivan.

The final note should be given to Fr. Roch for his excellent foresight and planning.

The new Bishop meets our school and the students for the first time as individuals through a discussion and mass.

"If you say that about my dollies again, I'll . . . I'll . . . I'll hold my breath till my face turns blue. So there! Nyaah, nyaah, nyaah!"

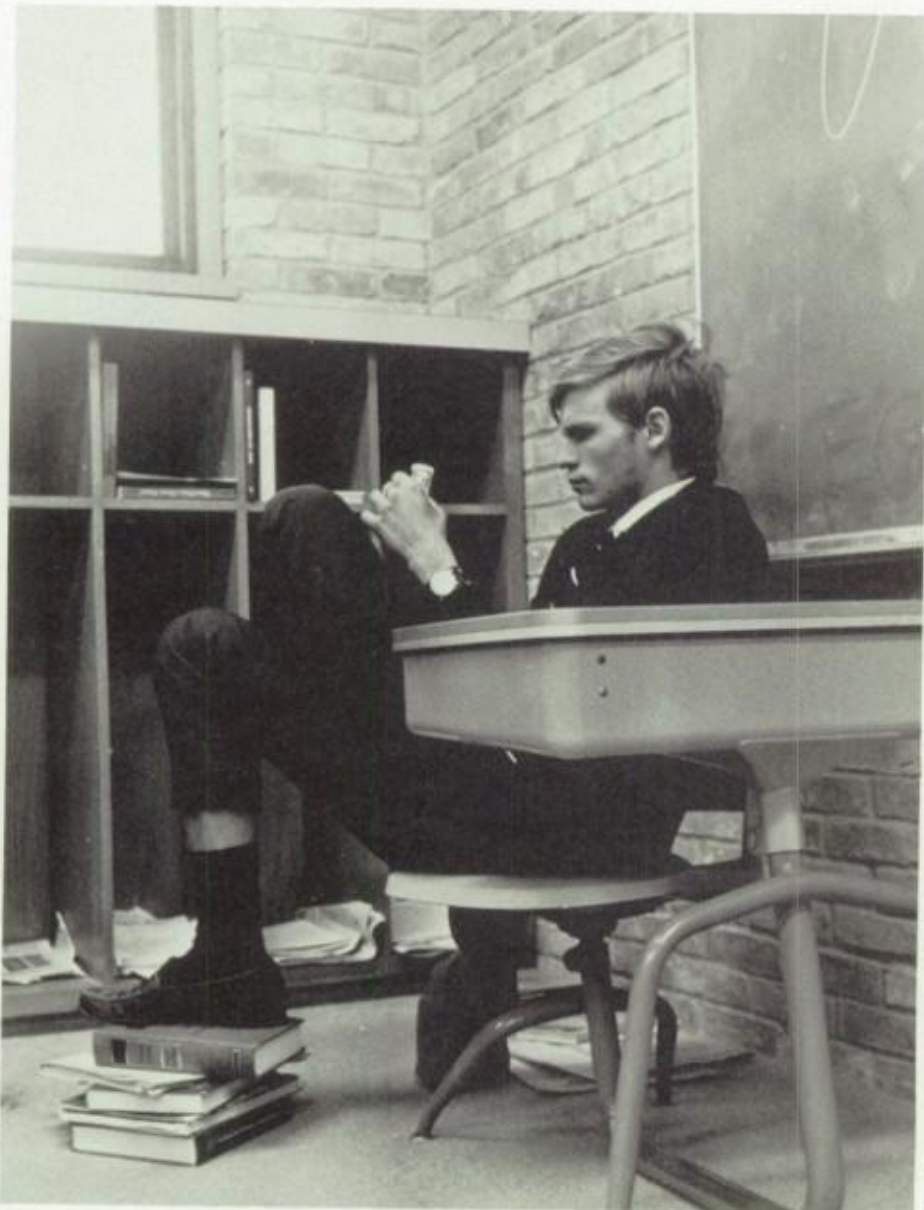

. . . The school is a place where a boy will be transformed into a man . . .

"I'm gettin' outa here; this place gives me the willies!"

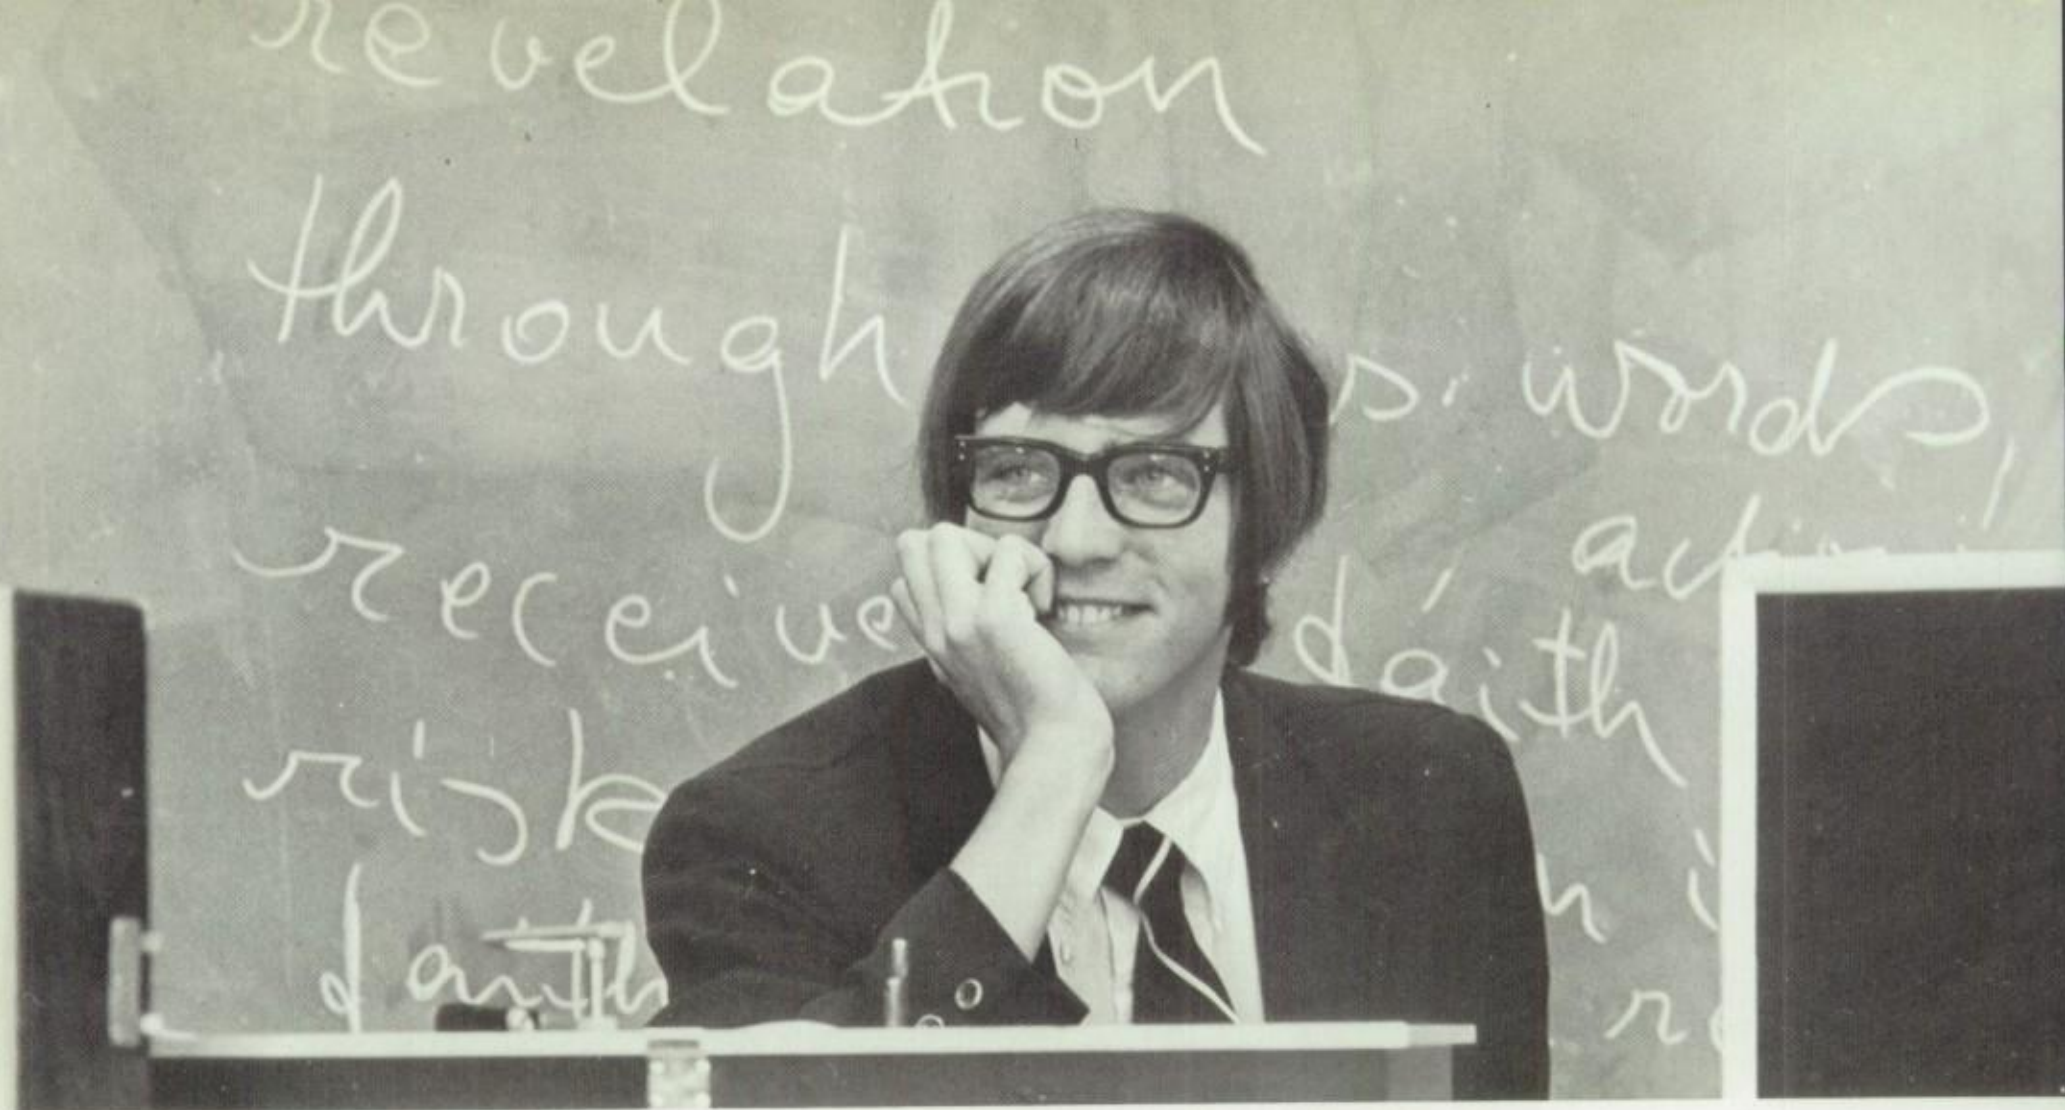

Hey, did you hear the one about the traveling salesman who . . .

. . . both student and teacher see the need for complete concentration in the classroom, and both pledge themselves to the continuation of this ideal . . .

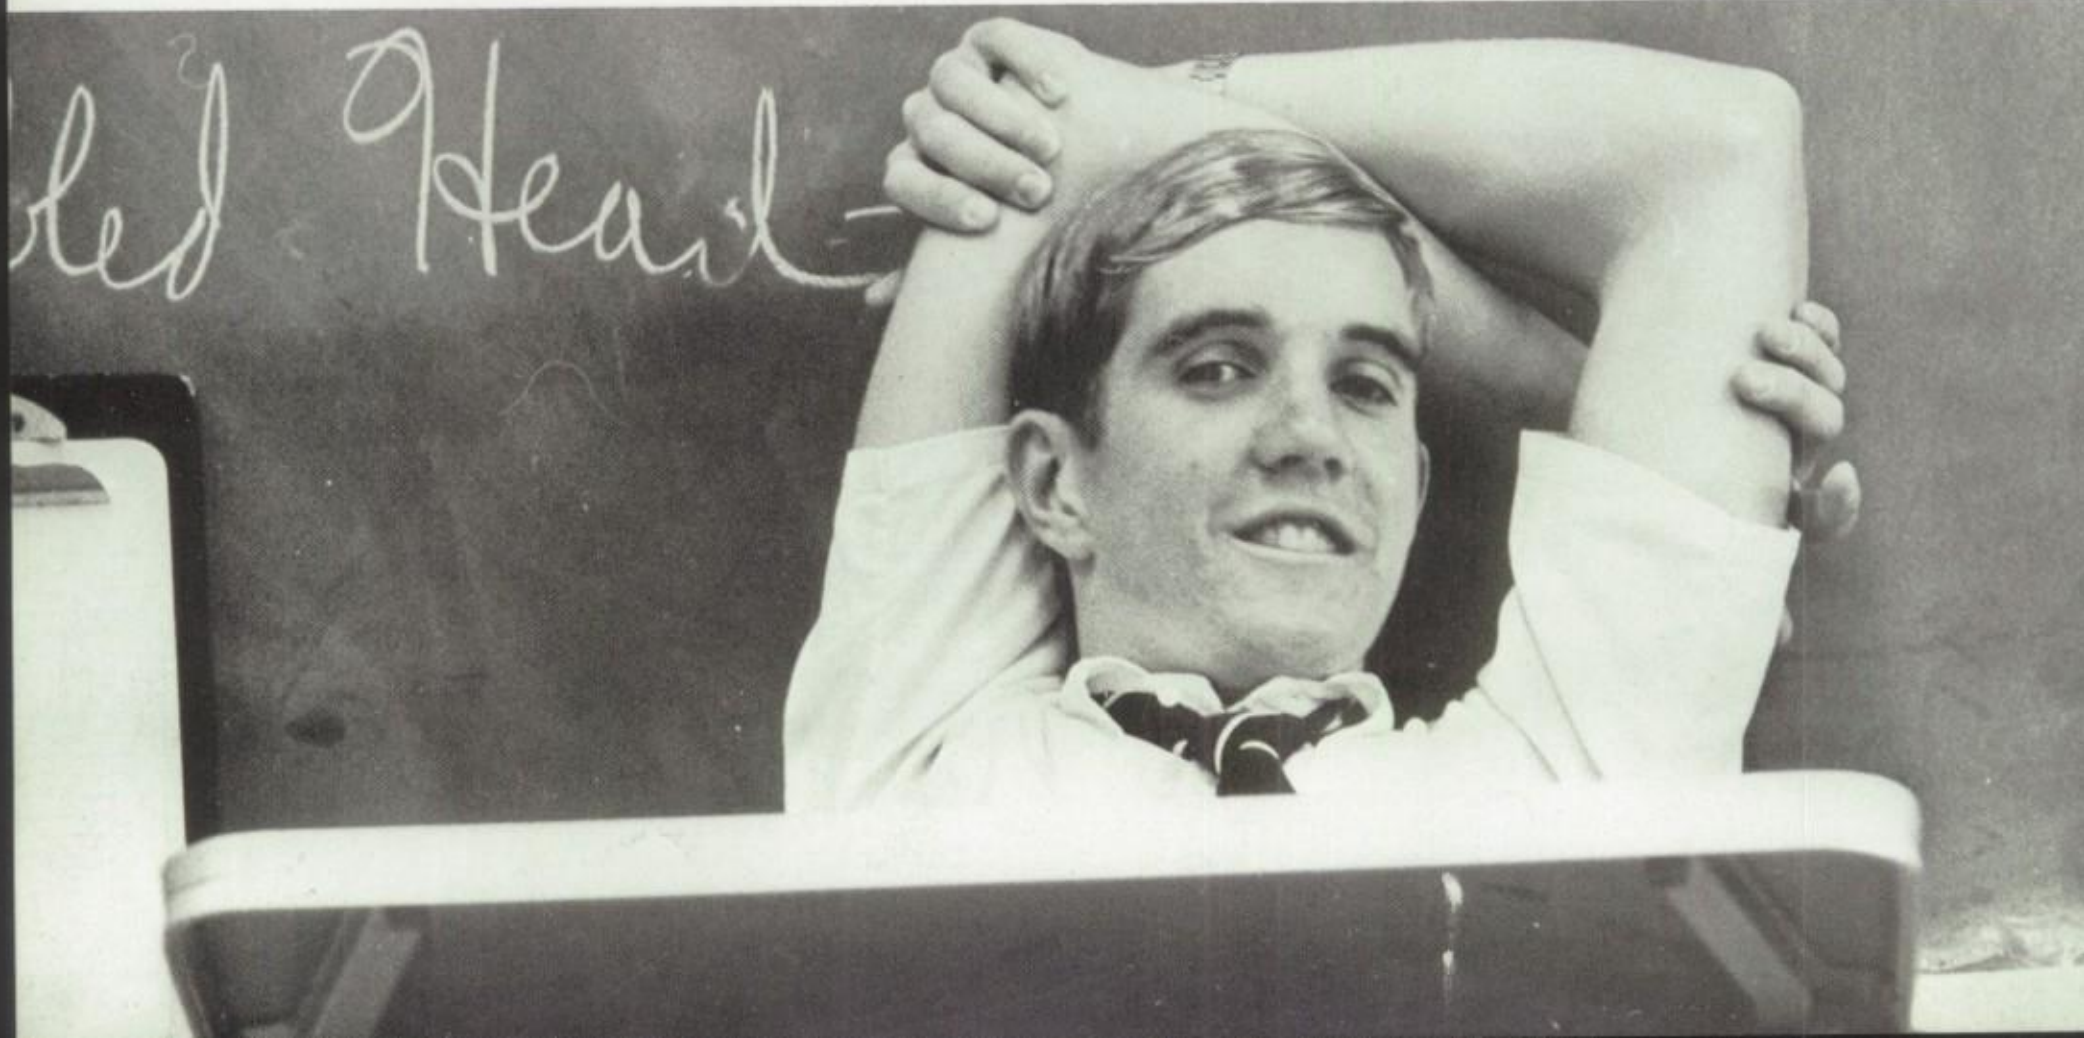

Abraham who?

"I don't care. I like 'Peter and the Wolf' !"

. . . And even though the grades come,
the smiles do too;
and one and all can say:
"That was really, really a good year!"

The new frontier...your future

Mariner 7 explores Mars. This picture shows the south polar cap region which has a variety of crater sizes and forms as well as linear and blotchy features not obviously related to cratering. The seasonally varying polar cap may be a layer of carbon dioxide ice a few feet in depth, or a thin layer of water ice less than an inch deep. The sunset shadow line (evening terminator) appears on the right-side of the picture. The grid of small black dots is the focal plane of the camera, and will be used for making precise measurements on the Mars pictures after additional computer processing.

This is picture number 112 of the 126 pictures of the Planet Mars which were taken by the television camera of the Mariner 7 spacecraft on August 5, 1969. The television camera was designed by Jet Propulsion Laboratory around a vidicon developed and manufactured by General Electrodynamics.

An exciting future is waiting for you . . . GEC salutes the first graduating class of the Cistercian Preparatory School and wishes you well.
